Get the Feeling!

MASACKSIC 1988
Longmeadow High School
Longmeadow, Massachusetts
Volume XXXII

We've got the feeling!

We've got the feeling! As we have improved with age, so have our feelings and attitudes. When we were Freshmen it was a feeling of being a little fish in a big sea. As we got older it changed to a feeling of authority now that we were Sophomores, instead of Freshmen. Then came the feeling of achievement. We had finally reached the upperclassman status of a Junior. We now had last block release, we got our licenses, and our homework load had increased. Finally came the overwhelming feeling of success of Senior year. A year full of college interviews and applications, Daisy-Weeds, the Junior-Senior Semi-Formal, and last but not least, "Senior Week". A week of parties with the Prom, Banquet, rehearsals, and finally Graduation.

This year we wanted to prove that we were the best class to have ever passed through the halls of Longmeadow High. A class that was unique and known from all the rest. So "GET THE FEELING!" of Senior year and enjoy the book.

Over the past ten years choral director, jazz conductor, and Drama Club director Michael Mucci has made an impact on Longmeadow High School that can not be measured in words.

His musicals such as "Oliver", "Camelot", and "Grease" have been acclaimed as "The best in the high school's history" and were perennial sellouts. As the school's director of the Boston Globe Drama Festival entry, Mucci has reached the state finals for three consecutive years. Last year "The Hasty Heart" finished fourth out of 75 entries.

As a jazz band director Mucci has brought home several All-State titles for LHS and is regarded as the best conductor in the state. Under his instruction, instrumentalists such as Robert Ravosa and Robert Soltz have garnered "Most Valuable Player" awards.

Perhaps Mr. Mucci's impact is best seen through his relationships with students. There is never a moment when his office is empty. Students look to him for guidance in dramatics, music, and personal affairs. To anyone who has worked with him, it is clear that Mr. Mucci is not only a dedicated instructor but a true friend.

His devotion to our school was tested this past fall when he chose to tackle a musical while persuing his Master's degree at UMASS. Two weeks into the musical, Mucci suffered appendicitis, and was hospitalized for one week. After his release, still barely able to walk, he returned to rehearsals. Directing from his lounge chair and with the use of a microphone, he ignored his pain for the good of the play.

Mike Mucci has dedicated the past ten years of his life to the students of LHS. For this dedication, the 1988 Masacksic is dedicated to him.

Thank you Mr. Mucci for all you do!

The old barn was decorated in the afternoon by Elena Contos, Mary Pat Chapman, Amy Lambert, Janet Christopherson, Jill Raymond, and Sharon Rencus. But they were not the only ones involved. Kate Lagunawoch and Laurie Hurley were responsible for getting all the arrangements made. So to all that helped we thank them for a fantastic Halloween Night!

The class of 1988 is finishing it's final year with a bang! This years class officers, President Mike Sullivan, Vice President Steve Zimmer, Committee Vice Pesident Amy Breslaw, Treasurer Drew Collina, and Secratary Eric Watts; and advisors, Ms. Broderick and Mr. Slate, the class has been doing quite well. So far this year several fundraisers have been held and raised the level of the bank account, like the rose sale, the Halloween Dance, the annual road race, and in the spring a bottle drive. Planning is also going along for the Senior Week events, so we can have a great week.

But this year has not just been hard work. The traditional Daisy/Weeds game was played with a new twist this year, random teams. In addition the Junior-Senior Semi Formal was held in January and many attended the function at Chez Joseph.

With all the to do with the Underdogs and a change from the norm for the class, Senior year has been alot of fun and will be remembered by all.

Diasy/Weeds

On a traditional November fridget morning the girls of the Senior class battled it out on the football field. This year something was different ... the teams had been picked randomly. At first there was alot of oppostion but gradually everything worked out. In fact it lead to a very exciting game which came down to the wire with the Weeds prevailing 20-14. The Weeds were coached by Dennis Murphy, Jon Cohen, Don Corsaro, Jeff Davis, and Craig Paczkowski and advisor Mr. Flynn, while the Daisies were coached by Marc Shay, Andy Drummey, Ben Falk, Rod Dallape, Mike Doyle, and Mr. Kirkpatrick. There was no overwhelming advantage for either team, unless you count those sexy cheerleaders. They ran around cheered the girls on and did their "BAD" dance at half time. All in all spirits were high and everyone had a great time.

Afterwards the class gather to celebrate they victory in good cheer. But that was after an hour of driving with 30 cars following each other, to find a place to hold the gala event.

"Those interviews", "the agonizing applications", the wait, the decision", "What will I do? Where will I go?". Does that seem familiar? For a Senior it does. There are thousands of schools and careers out there to choose from. There are also alot of decisions to be made but the Guidance department is always there to help. They have a whole wall of catalogues and the computer is always ready to help. All you have to do is know what you are looking for in a school, BIG, small, public, private, male, female, coed, inexpensive, expensive, You name it, they have got it. After that is done its all up to you, the interviews, applications. You know if you think about it, how many times did you fill out your full name in those tiny little spaces, and then plaster your social security number all over the page!?! All the torment is worth it though when the college letters roll in with the acceptances.

Semi-Formal

There was no need to start the evening off with the popular song "Catch Me I'm Falling" to get everyone excited about the Junior/Senior Semi-Formal, because they already were. Held on Saturday, January 9 at the ever ready Chez Josef, the classes of 88 and 89 came together to raise $600 for each class plus $600 for LHS Friends of the Homeless. A one senior guy said, "The decorations and setting (black, red, and white balloons) helped to pull the event off, but it was the people that attended that really made it special.".

Dresses were seen in colors from black velvet to hot pink, from traditional to modern,and from ankle length to mini. It was not unusual to see girls holding bright red roses their dates presented to them or to notice the smiles and compliments that were passed throughout the night.

The majority of those present went to dinner before the semi-formal began at 8 p.m. LHS students checked in at Sze's, The Gathering, Johan's and other area hot spots including McDonald's and then went on to dance the night away. Later, many students congregated at friends' houses to relieve their special evening. All in all, The Junior/Senior Semi-Formal was a fine way to bring the classes together in an elegant atmosphere.

TFL

Passing the football on a crisp autumn day after school, the guys that you saw chasing each other around may have made you wonder who they were. What you were watching were the few, the proud, the strong, the members of the Touch Football League. They were the Stentorians, the Hanson Brothers, RBW-14, the 89ers, the Undrdogs, and the Spoilers, The game was played just like football but instead of tackling one would have to touch there opponent.

The regular season went smoothly without any major problems. In the beginning, RBW-14 led the pack, with the Hanson Brothers placing second, the 89ers placin third, and the Underdogs, Stentorians, and Spiolers bringing up the rest. In the finals we found the Senior rivals, the Hanson Brothers and Stentorians going against each other with the Stentorians coming out on top.

The 1987 season of the TFL was a sucess. The players enjoyed the games because they were competitive yet fun. And for those fans who can out to witness it all, it was definite entertainment.

Volleyball

In California they play on the beach, in Longmeadow we play in the gym. What is it . . . Intramural Volleyball. Again this year there was a girl's and boy's division but due to the popularity of the sport the boy's division was split in two. A boy's ninth and tenth division and an eleventh and twelvth division now exist.

The girl's division consists of seven teams. The Seagrams Spirits, a Senior team managed an undefeated season and took first place. The Socos another Senior team placed second, the Manimals and JB3, both Junior teams, placed third and fourth and the Spikers topped off the top five.

In the boy's 9th and 10th division three teams existed. The Thundercats took first place away with an undefeated year. The Warriors and Exterminators took second and third place respectfully.

The 11th and 12th grade division was a great sucess, having 11 teams. The White Shadow a Senior team took first place, the Trojans took second, the Untouchables third, the Edge, fourth and Jerry's Kids, fifth. There was alot of competition for the top.

Semi-Formal

It was Tuesday night, November tenth, a frigid evening that gave us our first snowstorm of the season. This was the setting of the Sophomore Semi-formal. Because the next day was Veteran's Day, which meant no school, most partygoers stayed out until all hours of the night.

The semi-formal started at 7:30 p.m. in the Tivoli Room at Chez Josef with a "cocktail hour" that lasted until eight o'clock. During this time, everyone managed to get a look at their peers in all their finery. The guys looked great in their suits and the girls looked fantastic with most of them in dark velvet. There were very few decorations but the room looked great. In front of the soda bar was a great arch of black and white balloons and off to the side stood a table on which was an ice sculpture of our graduation date-1990.

Promptly at eight, the curtain sealing off the dining room from the bar opened to reveal round tables with white tablecloths and pink napkins arranged around the dance floor. After finding places at the tables, everyone settled down to a delicious meal of fruit, salad, a choice of chicken or roast beef, and parfaits, while the disk jockey, Kenny Richards, played slow dinner music in the background. After dinner, the DJ played music from the sixties, seventies, and eighties including favorites like "Old Time Rock and Roll" and "Shout". The dancing ended at midnight and comments ranged from "Fun!" to "Awesome!" to "The best time I've had in a while!" Then everyone left for their various parties, but it'll be a long time before the semi-formal is forgotten.

Fashions

Minis, tie-dies, and Keds were back in the fashion scene, according to a survey at LHS. As fashionable as we students were, the "show us us legs" attitude did not overpower the long jean and khaki skirts, both were still favorites. For girls, stoned washed, "comfortable" jeans topped the list, along with jean jackets, mock turlenecks, blouses, and fisherman knit sweaters. Oversized and Benetton sweaters were still preferred to the new look of cropped sweaters. Baring midriffs in the New England winters are just too cold!! The wardrobe was simple for the guys, as always. Stone washed jeans, oxfords, solid and stripped sweaters, rugby shirts, Levis, cords, and baggy college sweats ranked high.

The students kept in step with their shoes. L.L.Bean shoes, tennis and high top sneakers, leather flats, docksiders, and short leather boots were seen walking the halls. The ever popular keds or skips made it back to the fashion scene, either in bright colors or the plain white. Liz Claiborne scored in the bag department, along with other leather earth tones. Glitter and silver purses scored low on the popularity scale with girls. (we have yet to see a guy with a purse!)

Cuddled up to that special person you would probably smell either Laura Ashley, Shalimar, or Colors by Benetton on your girl. Polo and Brute were popluar for the guys but mainly used on those special occasions.

Frosh Dance

The annual Freshman Dance was an "all request Friday night" with disk jockey Steve Pelletier.

Music greeted the freshmen as they began to wander into the school at 7:30 pm. Socializing in the halls was first on the agenda, but then, slowly, the freshmen began to make their way into the cafeteria where many stood tentatively in their groups. Nobody was ready to make the first move. Finally, led by a few daring dancers, small groups started to move to the tunes blaring from the speakers. Once the dance was officially off the ground, it was non-stop rock until ten o' clock.

Chairs and tables were set up for those who "didn't feel like dancing", or "just wanted to take a break" with a soda or candy bar. Breaks were also taken by retreating to the halls or bathrooms to cool off, or to make a quick-check of one's appearance. However, dancers from everywhere were lured into motion in the cafeteria by the wide variety of hits ranging grom Steve Miller's "Junglelove", the Beatle's "Twist and Shout", INXS's "Need You Tonight", and Tiffany's "I Think We're Alone Now".

Most of the songs that were played were quick-moving, but slower songs such as "Stairway to Heaven", were also received with much enthusiasm.

Many of the freshmen stayed at the dance until 10:00 pm, when the last dance was danced, and the last song was sung. But, determined not to let a good thing end, many freshmen then headed over to Friendly's to finish off the night!

They certainly do if you took Freshman gym and did swimming second quarter. This years class was lucky though, over the summer the pool was cleaned, fixed, and given a new look. This made the adjustment a little easier to accept. This year's class also had it different in that they had to swim three times a week so that a health education program could be fit in. Did you get the feeling? The yearbook staff certainly did! Using the motto of "Get the Feeling!" Editors-in-chief Elena Contos and Kate Yahres, advisor Mr. Potvin, an group of writers, photographers, typists, copy writers, and graphic people aspired to capture LHS's memories which would definetly want to be remembered. The black and white photos caught students and faculty during the year, the copy writers wrote down the memories, and the staffs worked on the layouts. Despite the busy afternoons, the working on the weekend, and coming in during vacations, the staff felt confident about their work. "It's filled with a lot of new and exciting ideas. It will definety be the best! stated Elena Contos. So catch the spirit and GET THE FEELING!!

Read All About It!

"Impressions is a student-done magazine in every aspect. The contents are written by students, edited by students, and for the students."
-an Impressions member

The diverse distiction between between Longmeadow High School's three literary publications can be credited to the different staff members on each. "This past year of the Constitution, I think Ben Franlin would have been proud of the Jet Jotter", stated advisor Mr. Fitzgerald. The JJ provides its readers with relevant, interesting, and opinionated stories, which aim to reach out to a broader audience at LHS. Their attempt is to provoke thoughts about our community and world.

In a lighter view, the Rough Draft attacks more humorious views such as record reviews, fashion trends, and school activities. One anonymous RD writer stated, "The RD does not impose it's articles on it's audience, nor does it force their personal views on anyone. We mearly print the stories and let our readers use their imagination.".

Imaginations are definetly put to use with LHS's third publication, the yearly Impressions magazine. Poetry, prose, and art grace these pages in what is perhaps the most creative of the three. All of the articles and art in the Impressions is submitted by the creative student body at LHS. Mark Casey and Eric Watts the co-editors-in-chief stated, "Great minds think alike, great writers think Impressions."

National Honor Society, or NHS, acknowledges the academic achievements of juniors and seniors. Every year, new members are chosen in a faculty election based on leadership, scholarship, service, and character. A piont system is used in which 2 pionts are given for an A in a course, 1 for a B, 0 for a C, and -1 for a D. To be eligible a student must have 16 pionts by the end of sophomore year and 18 pionts by the end of junior year.

This year, there were 116 members. Advised by Mrs. Pincus and Mrs. Degon and led by president Mike Mandell, vice-president Charlie Gilman, secretary Janet Christopherson, social secretary Tricia Carroll, treasurer Scott Grodsky, and tutoring chairmen Craig Labovitz and Mark Casey. NHS continued its tradition by tutoring during school hours and giving away scholarships of money raised from dues and fund raisers. You might have even seen various members supervising the bookstore during lunch and selling baked goods to parents at Parent's Night. NHS also joined in the fundraiser to help the Homeless this year.

Three groups that bring people from different areas together are AFS, ABC, and Metco.

American Field Service Club combines social and cultral programs to its members. Once a month the nearly fifty members gather to discuss new and fun events. This year the LHS AFS club was honored to host a Finnish exchange student, Hedi Grass. Hedi has been able to share her culture with the students and has learned alot about ours. Advisor Mrs. Ianzito said, "Our local AFS club not only meets other American students from different areas but they have fun and broaden their knowledge about cultures from other worlds."

We are also fortunate to share our school with A Better Chance Program. ABC is made up of talented teens from the inner cities who live together on Wenonah Rd. Many of it's participants have gone on to very prestigeous colleges and sucessful careers.

Some kids at the LHS have to take the bus to school in the morning, but for a certain bunch the ride is a little bit longer. They are the kids in METCO, a group which comes from Springfield and other surrounding areas in search of a better education in Longmeadow.

New Horizons

Do you feel the yearn for the great outdoors? Or maybe you would like a taste of the Chinese culture? Either choice LHS accomodated both the Outing Club provided Safe outdoor activities for anyone interested. Supervised by Mr. Hirsch, the club met once a week and had a wide range of activities. This year's highlights were trips to Nobleview River, canoeing and ski trips both cross country and downhill. "It's a chance to explore the outdoors while exploring yourself," said one member, "You learn about your self-limits and you instill a sense of trust in yourself and in your class mates."

The Chinese Club, headed by Mrs. Su, is a rare opportunity for students to experience an entirely different culture, almost first hand, minus the actuality of being in China. Being one of only three high schools in Massachusetts to offer this club, students speak highly of both the teacher and the class's informal first name basis. "She is truly interested in her work," said Gary Martenson of Mrs. Su, "It's unlike any other class in school because the students participate, it's not just lectures."

To sum the International Club at LHS, advisor Mr.Santos said, "It is an active and dedicated bunch of young people interested and concerned with world events that will effect their lives". This past year marked the second year of the club's existance and its 25 members hosted monthly programs based on student focused issues such as Central American Awareness Day.

Another group of concerned students belong to SADD-Students Against Drunk Driving. Headed by a committee of Hillary Rieter, Kristen Bergin, Jen Doolan, and Cheryl Herman, the group aims to save teens lives by discouraging a combination of drinking and driving. "We don't tell people not to drink", stated Herman, "we just trying to get the public aware that the two don't mix.

The Math team (Todd Rowland, Mike Mandell, Athony Airne, Jason Stevens, Tom DeWeese, Irene Ho, and Felice Banson) under the direction of Mr. Daniels met 3-4 times and competed in Westrn Mass Tournaments. The Chess team (Todd Rowland, Bill Tuman, Malik Sievers, Jon Lin, Stephen Lin, and Eric Watts) met every week with Advisor Mrs. Sutton and became first in their league. Home meets were played in the teacher's cafeteria after school. The As-Schools-Match-Wits team met 3-4 times and competed on the show in October. Matt White, the club's President, stated "It has been easier and harder (this year)." He mentioned that while on their own, trying new ideas was tops on the list.

This year's brave officers, who took on the load of running the club, were Matt White; President, Scott Grodsky and Kevin Flaherty; Vice presidents, Chris Nugent; Treasurer, and Kyle Kisiel; Secretary. To back up these five men were sixty-eight enthusiastic members who kept busy with many activities including the "long-loved" snow shoveling and the club favorite-The Variety Show. White said, "The Variety Show (1988) was the hottest thing this school has ever seen."

With confidence like this, the Key Clubbers showed their committment not only to the community, but to our school as well.

-A band member

This year's band, consisting of Concert Band, Wind Ensemble, and Jazz Ensemble, is probably one of the best that Longmeadow High has ever seen. This group of students is especially talented as incoming Freshman ablely fill the empty positions.

The Concert Band alias the "training group" is made up of mostly Freshman and Sophomores paving their way to the select group known as Wind Ensemble and in some cases. They have honed their skils enough to make successful turnouts at the all the concerts. Wind Ensmeble consists of about thirty students who are more skilled and can learn their music faster. Finally there is the Jazz Ensemble which contain many Medaled students in the Jazz area. They hav been repeative champions in the State year after year.

Many band members can be found playing at the football games on Saturdays, Pep Rallies, Longmeadow Days Parade, or in the District and All State organizations. They have been giving us terrific music through the years and plan to continue their excellance.

Walking by the LHS chorus room, one not only hears do, re, mi, but 134 students displaying melodic music and enjoyment at the same time.

Music department coordinators, Mr. Mucci and Mr. Thomsen, are proud of the fact that we are the best choirs in the state. Lyrics, the 42 member select choir was, as usual, superior this year. For the 9th year in a row, all 20 singers who auditioned for the senior district chorus made it. LHS is the only school that boasts this record. Concert chorus and the Mixed Choruses also showed LHS that singing is more than fun and games. At LHS the "fun and games" is made into an art and taken well beyond typical high school chorus as Mr. Thomsen states, "singing is a cooperative effort, our kids work well together to acheive near professional status."

Throughout the year the four choirs performed at various settings such as the annual pops concert, exchange concert, and major works concert. Both coordinators agree that, "making good vocal music is always fun, and here, we take our fun very seriously."

The scenario: Danny (Tony Templeton) was stranded at the drive-in, would Sandy (Ellen Ferris) ever win his love? Meanwhile Kenickie (Doug Dickerman) and Rizzo (Claudine Barnes) were involved in yet another lover's quarrel! Not to worry though, Doody, Frenchie, Marty, and Sonny (Brian Makarewicz, Kristen Hoyt, Dena Schulman, Sean Roberts) weren't scoring too well with their relationships either. On the other hand, Jan and Roger (Stacy White, Mike Sullivan) were going strong. Sound like another soap? A bizarre love triangle at LHS? No, it was Grease, the 1987 Fall musical.

This year, more than ever, the cast and crew had to pull together due to Mr. Mucci's long absence, but following in his footsteps, the group succeeded. "It was the truly professional attitude that pulled us through," stated one proud chorus member. With a super cast and crew, a fantastic producer-Stephanie Wiseman, and direction by Mr. Mucci-the show sold out to appreciative audiences.

Choreographed by Claudia Mari, the lively dances had the entire cast believing we were "born to handjive!"

Grease was the word, was the play, was a success!

Football

Longmeadow football did not start out on a high note. Though the defense played well they were 1-2 entering the fourth game. Quarterback Jon Cohen missed the beiginning part of the season due to illness and in the words of Coach Deary, "The offense was sputtering". But their luck changed with the 35-7 win against Chicopee. With Cohen back Longmeadow outscored it's opponents 137-34 during a four game winning streak. Junior Brett Perlmutter was named Springfield Union New's Player of the Week for an excellant performance scoring 7 touchdowns in two games.

In Longmeadow's sixth game against Concord-Carlisle senior Ron Sommerville scored 2 touchdowns and 3 to romp over South Hadley. Dennis Murphy, Andy Drummey, and Craig Paczkowski also contributed to help the team on the victory.

Unfortunately it all came down after the loss against Greenfield for the Suburban League title. The Lancer season did not end there, they played the final game against East Longmeadow on a cold rainy Thanksgiving morning.

All in all the season was a good one. Sure it ended in disappointment but the seniors displayed invaluable leadership throughout the entire season.

Cheerleading

The 87' Lancer football cheerleaders were off to an early start in August. They were right out there during double session practices along with the football team. Most of the squad attended the United States Cheeleading Association Camp during the summer where senior captain Mary Pat Chapman was named MA's All-Americen . During the week you could see the girls out there under the firm hand of Coach Massie, and their efforts paid off when you saw them at the Saturday games. At the Pep Rally they dazzled everyone with their dance routine and the ever so traditional Cha-Cha. This years squad became a family having breakfasts before the game, M-M-M bagels, candy corns, Im so stuffed how am I going to cheer?!?!. The cheerleaders cheered on the team and pepped up the crowd at all the games, even the one's in the pouring rain. The squad was lead by Mary Pat Chapman and co-captains Cheryl Bagshaw and Carrie Pope. But all the hard work that was done was well worth it because the girls certainly had alot of fun.

Boy's Soccer

With a 1-12-4 season the LHS boy's soccer team can be commended for it's outstanding individual performances, like senior Drew Collina, when he scored the winning goal in the West Side game. Senior Kyle Kisiel and junior Mark Lantz provided great defense during the games. and junior goalie Mitchell Rubin kept his end of the bargain up with 20 saves during the Cathedral game, a team that went on to become State Champions. Other talent included junior halfback Jose Toirac who scored three goals against Chicopee Comp in their season finale. These and other outstanding preformances resulted in alot of very close games for the Lancers against Northampton, Minnechaug, Amherst, and Holyoke. Freshman Erik Godek scored the only goal for the Lancers in their 1-2 ties with Northampton and Minnechaug.

Tri-captains Drew Collina, Jeff Davis, and Kyle Kisiel, who recieved the Charlie Johnson Award for most valuable player, provided strong leadership for the team. Of course there was a degree of disappiontment with a losing season but with a freshman soccer record of 14-2 there is alot to look forward to.

Girls's Soccer

Being in Division B, the girls soccer team had an incredible season. Coach McCarthy was quite happy with his girl's season. This year the team was made up of alot of talent. The talent included the leadership of the seniors, Maria Cacciapouti, Ellen Ferris, Kate Lagunowich, Kristen Hayes, Mindy Gerstein, Krissy VanGaasbeck, and Amy Lambert. The team also had the talents of sophomores Stephanie Lyons and Angie Germino and freshmen Tami Butler, and Kim VanGaasbeck.

Unfortunately, a winning season ended quickly in the playoffs. During the playoffs they were moved up to Division A due to the size of the school. In the first game against Westfield they lost. But when all was said and done the girls and Coach Mc Carthy were happy with the success. But with this winning season does this mean its back to Division A?

Gymnastics

They're back with more skill and more spirit than before. They're improved, fresh, and exciting. They're the LHS gymnastics team and their season had coach Stockhammer and assistant coach Renzi doing flips! With thirteen girls on the team including captain Michelle LaRosa, junior Dawn Gales, and freshman Traci Marchese, they pulled a undefeated season with a 13-0 record.

All this winning, although some came naturally, did not come easily. The team practiced daily for three hours after school and two hours on Saturdays to create routines and push each other to do different, creative, and difficult stunts. The team was very supportive of one another and there was a rare time when a member did not perform to their best.

The most exciting of the season was at the Western Mass Championships where they showed their incredible strength and went on to become the #1 team in Western Mass. To achieve this, each member displayed great amounts of leadership and teamwork. As Dawn Gales said, "We worked well together as a team. Michelle contributed leadership throughout the season."

Boy's Cross Country

With the coaching of Mr. Winseck for another year, the boy's cross country had another winning season. They finished with a record of 7-3. Training along with the girl's cross country team, they could be seen running around the fields, or doing sprints around the track.

Leadership came from Chip MacElhiney who ran for his first year. Chip added his ability to an already talented team. The talent came from senior Andre Frosh, juniors Mike Steele, and Scott Ficher. The Freshman on the team added their ability very well.

The team also competed in the Coaches Invitational, Western Mass, and Individuals. So for more that 12 years Coach Winseck has been training young men to be the best that they can possible be.

Girl's Cross Country

With a new coach this year the girl's cross country team started off to a good start. The girls started training together in August. After that if you passed by the high school after school the team could be seen running around the track, school, around the fields, or running up and down the dunes. Their training was hard but the results show that the hard work payed off. The team was lead by senior Darby Killeen who was in her third year on the team. Darby did very well through the season but at the end of the season she became sick and did not do as well as could have been expected in the Western Mass Championships. But the talent did not end their. With many members of the team being freshmen the team had to build up it's experience. Some of the talent on the team included juniors Kristen Welch and Cathy Shea, sophomores Jessica Rappaport and Marcy Delong, and freshmen Nancy MacElhiney and Marcia Metz. The team did very well having runners entering the Valley Wheel Individuals, the Coaches Invitational, and Western Mass Championships in which the team did very well. With the end of the season does not mean a stop to running for most of these girls though, they still can be seen running along the streets in preparation for track in the spring.

Lead by the senior captains, Elena Contos, Amy Breslaw, Meg Dineen, Catherine Moran, Betsi Suzor, Gina Guardione, Heather Leonovich, and Cindy Dolce they made it to the semi-finals where they lost to Smith Academy. Coach Ann Simmons was pleased with her teams achievements, "They were a very talented group". Junior Jen Masi also showed her ability as she played goalie for the very first time. Although she played goalie for lacrosse she had to learn a whole new game. Other talent included juniors Tiffany Ratner, Nancy Damon, Michelle Ormsby, and Chrissy Ferioli and sophomores Jackie Joseph and Heather Barksdale. In the end they finished with a very good record.

Junior varsity also had a good season. With the team made up of mostly freshman and juniors, the team was a mixture of experience and inexperience. Coach Garvey was pleased with the way everything turned out in her final season.

What did Coaches Ron Morissette, Brian Cogswell, and Charles Mannheim have in common? Three great boys' basketball teams to be proud of! The Varsity, J.V., and Freshmen teams boasted impressive victories against most of their opponents.

Morissette's varsity group, composed of only seniors and juniors, plugged star players like seniors Scott Epstein, Dennis Murphy, and Steve Brunette, and juniors Matt Auth, Chris Crosby, Todd Butler, and LHS newcomer, Thad Eldredge. Who will forget Auth and Epstein's combined 23 goals in the tight win (65-64) against West Side, not to mention other highlights, such as defeating our East Longmeadow rivals twice!

For the JV team of juniors and sophomores, they racked up more wins than varsity, which should provide for a superb team in next year's season! Star juniors Mitch Rubin, Mike Magee, and Mike Krumsiek as well as eight consistent sophomore players upheld the Lancer's reputation of quality basketball, surefire shots, and strong wins.

The freshman team was nothing to scoff at, they won many games and returning players will be a solid addition to next year's JV and Varsity teams. Once again, the Lancer's Boys' Basketball teams were something to really look up to!

Girls' Basketball

Longmeadow's girls basketball team hasn't always been very good. Remember last years record? This season however, under former Cathedral High coach Mary Murray, Longmeadow has shown great improvement with a record of 9 wins and 8 losses. Although they did lose some of their games, most of the games have been lost by only a few points. The reason for this coach Murray attributes to girl's competiveness, "they are more hungry to win".

The team has gotten alot of help from such strong players as junior Kat Moynahan, Katherine McMonagle, Kate Tremble and Sharon Mauri. Senior Maria Cacciapouti added her previous experience to help the team out. Senior captain Rachel Haley played strongly but was out most of the season with a knee injury. New talent was added by freshman Tammy Butler, and boy did she spark up some action. Butler managed to rack up an average number of seventeen points per game and gained the recognition of Union-News Player of the Week and as the league's top scorer.

It was with this talent that the girls basketball had such a great season.

Skiing

"Take what you have and make it better," was the underlying theme of the Longmeadow High School ski team's spirited season. Coached by vereran Michael McCarthy, and led by senior captain, Ben Falk, the teams rebuilt after heavy senior losses and pulled together to place fourth in Div. A for the boys and fifth in the same division for the girls. Although the season records were not as high as usual, everyone gained valuable experience. The teams learned that winning meets is only a part of what makes a good ski team, the other parts being, spirit and dedication.

The training for this season was more intense than ever. Tryouts included rigorous workouts in the pool hallway, preceeded by long runs and simulated race courses. Time trials selected 12 men and women to represent LHS. A hectic schedule of skiing and training began with races every Tuesday at Berkshire East.

This year there was alot of talent on the team. One such person was senior Ben Falk, who has skied in the postion of # 1for the past four years. Juniors Mark Lantz and Stephanie Wiseman also had successful seasons. They placed sixth and fifth respectfully in Western Mass competition. Ben Falk and Mark Lantz finished in the top ten in the state to qualify them for the Eastern High School Championships. We congratulate the Lancers for a fine season. -Ben Falk

Swimming

What's black and white and swims like a fish??? Answer: the LHS champion swim teams!!

The guys team, led by coaches Freaser and Clark, had yet another winning year. With over 40 top swimmers on the team including senior captains Evan Shukan and diver Damon Thomas, and juniors Mike Spink and Mark Quattrochi, they proved that LHS is number one on land and sea, and for the divers in the air.

All the teams practiced on weekends and after school and each member swam a minimum of three miles per day. The team work strenuously to fulfill their goals, both for the team and individual goals. Each member added skill and spirit-both important to a winning team. This helped give both the girls and boys team a strong showing at the Western Mass Championships.

The girls team coached by Coach Carter, pushed themselves more than ever to outdo their male counterparts. Although they did not succeed, with the help of senior Krista Schlueter and diver Jeanne Trelease, and juniors Jen Masi and Kathy Walsh, they surpassed the record of last year's team. Above all, the LHS swim teams all had an excellent season filled with spirit, competition, and yes . . . free swim!!!

Hockey

Skating fast and furious, the black and white blurs skimming across the thin ice could only be the Lancer's 1987-88 hockey team. Coached by Ray Suzor this year's team consisted of seniors and juniors, yet was strongly supported by lower classmen. Despite the disappointment of losses, like the defeat by Agawam High, which broke the Lancer's 4-win streak, the group saved face with the help of outstanding team sportsmanship by players who scored goal after goal.

Seniors Mike Sweet and Don Corsaro, and freshman Brian Moran scored goal after goal. Goalkeepers Matt Wenz and Andre Frosch blocked the opponents firing shots with skill and determination. Frosch displayed consistency and success, especially during the Longmeadow vs West Side game where he was described by Suzor as, "The quickest goalie we've ever had . . . (he) anticipates so well."

Sweet and Corsaro scored continuously in games against Agawam and West Springfield- both helping the team over the top at tense moments during the game's final seconds.

Overall, the entire team produced a mixed season of both wins and losses. With the absence of ten seniors next year, the team will really have to pull it together to continue their success. Despite this year's losses, the victories were strong.

Wrestling

To pin the opponent is the object of the sport, and the wrestling team seemed to do just that to just about every team they faced this past season. No hesitant victories were captured by the team, only surefire wins, such as smothering Commerce at 78-0, doubling above West Springfield with 42-20, and even confidently topping Ludlow at 33-30. Highlighted players included seniors Nick Nichols, and Bryan Williams and juniors Scott Swords, Rich Gafter, Kevin Delany, and Mitch Feinsod- who downed their opponents strongly to lead the Lancer's to unbelievable rankings. Just three weeks before the Western Massachusetts Tournament, the team found themselves with an impressive record of 15-3. The team consisted mainly of juniors and freshmen, which should prove to be an equally as strong team in upcoming years. Players to keep an eye on are Feinsod, Swords, Gafter, and freshmen Brad Swords, Stephen Sandler, and Jon Willse. Coached by Paul Schmutz, he was just as proud of the team as the players themselves. "I don't know when Longmeadow's done as well as it has this year," he stated. Well, watch out for next year's team-we're all rooting for another great season!
